

Mutual respect

PSHE curriculum embodies values of mutual respect

'Respect' is one of our whole school 6R learning powers

Anti-bullying, E-safety and Keep Safe are key threads throughout our school curriculum

Sports competitions

Growth mindset

Peer reading buddies

Celebration assemblies, Shine Awards

Rule of Law

High expectations about pupil conduct reflected in our clearly structured behaviour policy which all stakeholders understand and follow

School anti-bullying policy

Assemblies with a focus linked to citizenship

Children are given continuous opportunities to reflect on their learning and behavior

Zero heroes

Top Table to promote good lunchtime behaviours and social skills

Tolerance of Culture, Faith and others

Multicultural events e.g. International Week, cultural days/afternoons

Broad and balanced R.E. Curriculum on a range of faiths, religions and cultures.

Major world events e.g. Nelson Mandela's life, General Election built into curriculum

Visits to places of worship

Local, National, Global charity work

Language of the month

Reflection opportunities in class and assemblies

EAL Home learning Club

British Values

at

Epsom Primary School

At Epsom Primary School, we believe children should be tolerant and respectful of each other. We teach and up hold these values through our ethos, behavior and curriculum.

Individual liberty

Understanding school rules and classroom rules

Pupil monitors and responsibilities

Wide range of enrichment activities

Careers Day

Home/school agreements

Restorative justice strategies

Active pupil participation in curriculum design

Democracy

Election of pupil leaders

School Council decision making

Head Girl/Boy election

Lunchtime 'coaches'

Pupil conferencing

Pupil voice in learning walks

Choice of extended learning provision opportunities

Democracy is promoted through additional PSHE lessons, circle time, assemblies and visitors.